EXAMINER'S AMENDMENT

An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

Authorization for this examiner's amendment was given in a telephone interview with John McCulloch on December 6, 2004.

The application has been amended as follows:

1. Claim 8, line 1, change "according to claim 1" to --according to claim 7--;
2. Claim 25, line 5, change "to be effect" to --to effect--;
3. Claim 26, line 2, change "said first retainers" to --said first retainer--.

Reasons For Allowance

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: none of the prior art alone or in combination disclose or teach of the claimed combination of limitations to warrant a rejection under 35 USC 102 or 103.

Specifically regarding independent claim 1, none of the prior art alone or in combination disclose or teach of an apparatus for use with a drape capable of enclosing a surgical microscope having a lens housing and a first retainer to encircle and grip the lens housing, a second retainer encircling the first retainer, wherein one of the retainers includes a transparent shield to protect lenses in the lens housing specifically wherein the second retainer is adjustable relative to the first retainer to releasably remain in any selected one of a number of positions of adjustment relative to the first retainer.

Specifically regarding independent claim 13, none of the prior art alone or in combination disclose or teach of an specifically of a protective cover for removable attachment to an objective lens housing of a surgical microscope including a primary retainer to encircle and engage the lens housing, and a secondary retainer encircling the primary retainer, specifically wherein the secondary retainer is adjustable relative to the primary retainer any selected one of a plurality of a number of positions of adjustment and wherein both the primary and secondary retainers include a transparent shield to form a closure for the retainers.

Specifically regarding independent claim 20, none of the prior art alone or in combination disclose or teach of an specifically protective cover construction for a surgical microscope having an objective lens, including a first retainer to encircle and snugly engage the lens housing, and a second retainer encircling the first retainer and includes a transparent shield to form a closure for the retainer, specifically wherein the second retainer is movable relative to the primary retainer to any selected one of a plurality of adjusted positions.

Drawings

New corrected drawings in compliance with 37 CFR 1.121(d) are required in this application because the drawings are informal. Specifically the drawings include hand written reference labels and are therefore informal. Applicant is advised to employ the services of a competent patent draftsman outside the Office, as the U.S. Patent and Trademark Office no longer prepares new drawings. The corrected drawings are required in reply to the Office action to avoid abandonment of the application. The requirement for corrected drawings will not be held in abeyance.

Conclusion

The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. Cleveland et al, Glockler, and Grinblat are cited as having some similar structure to the claimed invention.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
